GOOD FRIDAY

Palm Sanday

may grant un-to us to dwell in such qui- et and tran-quil-li- ty that we may dú- ly shew fórth the gló-ry of Gód the Fá-ther Almighty.

Let us práy. Deacon. Let us bów the knée.

Subdeacon. Ry. A-rise.

The Prayer following is chanted in the ferial tone of the Collect at Mass.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast in Christ made manifest thy glory unto all mankind: we beseech thee that thou wouldest preserve those things which of thy mercy thou hast created; that thy Church being spread abroad through all the world may steadfastly abide in the confession of thy holy Name. Through the same. Ry. Amen.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, whose judgment upholdeth all things both in heaven and earth: we beseech thee mercifully to have respect unto our prayers, that like as thou hast appointed this thy servant to be our Bishop so thou wouldest of thy mercy defend him against all adversities; and that all Christian peoples, acknowledging thee alone to be their author and governour, may so prosper by his care that they may duly increase in bringing forth the fruits of their profession. Through. Ry. Amen.

Deacon. Let us bow the knée. Subdeacon. Ry. Arise.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church; that every member of the same in his vocation and ministry may truly and godly serve thee. Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee. Ry. Amen.

make súbject un-to him all the péo-ples that delight in war to the pré-ser-vá-tion of our per-pé- tu- al péace. Let us pray. Deacon. Let us bow the knée. Subdeacon. Ry. A-rise.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, in whose hand is the dominion of all things, and the governance of all kingdoms: look down in mercy on this Empire; that the nations which trust in the fury of their violence, may be quelled by the defence of thine almighty power. Through. Ry. Amen.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost ever increase thy Church with the abundance of a new generation: we beseech thee that thou wouldest multiply in faith and understanding them that are being taught in thy holy word; that being renewed in the water of Baptism they may be numbered among the sons of thine adoption. Through. Ry. Amen.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, the comforter of them that mourn, the strength of them that travail: we beseech thee to hear the prayers of them that in any necessity make their supplications unto thee; that in all their troubles and adversities they may rejoice in the present succour of thy loving-kindness. Through. Ry. Amen.

Good Friday

B xiv

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who wouldest not that any should perish, but rather that they should be saved: we beseech thee mercifully to look upon them that are deceived by the crafts of the devil; that the hearts of them which have gone astray may be delivered from their perversities and restored to the way of truth and to the unity of thy holy Church. Through. Ry. Amen.

¶ No Ry. is made, but immediately is said:

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who extendest even to the falsehood of the Jews the abundance of thy mercy: graciously hear the prayers which we offer unto thee for the blindness of the hearts of this people; that acknowledging Christ Jesus, the light of thy truth, they may yet be delivered from the darkness of their ignorance. Through the same. Ry. Amen.

us bow the knée. Subdeacon. Ry. A- rise.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who desirest not the death of a sinner but rather that he should turn from his wickedness and live: mercifully accept our prayers; that the heathen being delivered from the worship of idols may be united to thy holy Church to the honour and glory of thy Name. Through. Ry. Amen.

mand-ed and taught-us, we are bold to say:

Then taking the Candle out of the water, he dips it again more deeply, repeating at a higher pitch: May the power, as above. Afterwards the Candle is again taken out of the water and the third time is dipped to the bottom of the Font, the Priest repeating at a still higher pitch: May the power, as above. And then breathing thrice on the water in this form Ψ , he proceeds:

And make this wa-ter to be ef-féc-tu-al un-

¶ And the rest he reads:

Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Who shall come to judge the quick and the dead, and the world by fire. Ry. Amen.

If Then the water that has been blessed is sprinkled over the people by the assisting Priests. Pouring Oil into the Font, in the form of a Cross, the Priest says:

May this Oil of salvation make this font holy, and cause it to multiply that those who find herein their new birth may come to life everlasting. Ry. Amen.

¶ Pouring the Chrism, he says:

May this mingling of the Chrism of Jesus Christ our Lord, and of the Holy Ghost the Paraclete, be wrought in the Name of the most holy Trinity. Ry. Amen.

I Pouring both together, he says:

May this commingling of the Chrism of salvation and of the Oil of unction & of the Water of Baptism likewise be wrought in the Name of the Fa & ther, and of the S & on, and of the Holy & Ghost. Ry. Amen.

Then he mingles the Oil and water, and scatters it over the font with his hand. If there be any to be baptized, he baptizes them.
